

KAPITAN
ENGINEERING, INC.

Cable Networks/Land Surveying

Telecommunications Technician

One to two Entry-level full time positions available for a recent or upcoming graduate with a 2-year technical degree in telecommunications technology or similar program. Must have basic knowledge of voice/data communications cable network design and familiarity of outside plant and construction methods. Applicants must be proficient in AutoCAD computerized drafting and Microsoft Word/Excel.

Responsibilities will include utility map updates, field staking, construction inspection and acceptance testing of fiber optic cable for telecom clients in southern and central Wisconsin.

Located near Madison, Kapitan Engineering is a communications network design firm that offers competitive wages. If you possess the above qualifications, can work independently, like challenges, have reliable transportation, and want to be a part of a design team, please forward or email your resume with references. to ccarroll@kapitan-eng.com. This job is to be filled immediately.

Kapitan Engineering, Inc.
P.O. Box 665
Sauk City, WI 53583

Attn: Human Resources Dept.

Email: ccarroll@kapitan-eng.com

Posted July 10, 2010